THE JOSEPH COMMUNICATIONS
SAY ABOUT
LEY LINES, GRIDS AND DEVAS

INTRODUCTION

"Joseph" is a discarnate spirit who is part of a large soul group who have completed their cycles of earthly incarnations but elected to remain in the spheres close to earth in order to help the rest of humanity to wake up and remember that they are angelic beings who can help the Earth ascend out of the darkness currently enveloping it by healing themselves and sending out pure love and light directly from source to all beings and situations without judgement and with forgiveness. Over the last fifteen years or so, eight books have been dictated by Joseph, the soul group's elected communicator, via trance medium Michael George Reccia at the Sanctuary of Healing at Langho, Lancashire, UK.

The Yin Dragon current known as Elen, which is part of the Belinus Line, flows through The Sanctuary of Healing and both Gary Biltcliffe and Caroline Hoare, who wrote The Spine of Albion book about dowsing the Belinus Line, and Adrian Incledon-Webber of Dowsing Spirits were instrumental in ensuring that the Sanctuary is free from geopathic stress with pure and harmonised energies.

There follows the information that the Joseph Communications have given which relates to what Dowsers call 'Earth Energies'. After a brief note about the terminology used, there follows an excerpt from the book 'Trance Mission' where Joseph answers a question about healing the earth's magnetic grids that was posed by an audience member at a trance demonstration in August 2009. Next the answer to a question posed by the Dowser Chris Tonge which was answered via YouTube in April 2023.

If you feel you are already awake and would like to take part in weekly group meditation sessions live on Zoom where meditators help to bring through Angelic intentions and members of Joseph's soul group are also present and meditating alongside the group for the good of humanity and the earth, then please visit the "World Meditation Alliance" website at World Meditation Alliance – Meditating as One, For Everyone

In the Summer of 2026, Michael G Reccia was interviewed on Alex Ferrari's Next Soul Level podcast. The Video of this can be found at 67 Studio 1

Terminology: 'The Field' and 'The Fall' – a brief explanation by Michael G. Reccia

These are two terms referred to by Joseph during the communications:

The Field

When referring to 'the Field' Joseph is describing the conscious field of thought-energy we, as spirits on Earth, are surrounded by and live within. Every second of our lives we project our thoughts and beliefs as to the nature of reality into this energy field. The field is actually created and maintained by us, but we have lost sight of this fact. As a result of us forgetting this, which in itself is a result of 'The Fall' (see below), the field is not operating as it was originally intended to. It was supposed to serve us, but at the moment we, in effect, serve it. It exhibits and seeks to perpetuate in us, a negative charge and outlook, and, because of this and its disconnection with God-light, is maintaining itself and us via a finite and dwindling amount of energy. The field in its present state, and therefore we as human beings existing within it, cannot last much longer. Joseph urges us to re-energise the Field with God-Light and, by doing so, to transform it and take control of it once again for the betterment and continuance of mankind and the planet.

The Fall

…. is a term that Joseph applies to a complex decision and action taken by human souls millions of years ago which resulted in a cataclysmic change in vibration that plunged the Earth into a darkness we and the planet are still suffering from and feeling the effects of. This change in vibration separated us in conscious thought from our God-heritage and resulted in the negative, violent, power-hungry world and society we currently live in.

HEALING THE EARTH'S MAGNETIC GRIDS

Joseph Trance Demonstration. 12th August 2009
The Sanctuary of Healing, Langho, Lancashire UK

Excerpt from Chapter 4 of the book, 'Trance Mission' by Michael G Reccia (2013)

Denis Barnes: Could you tell us about the magnetic grids around the earth, and what ascension means to you where you are at the present time?

Joseph: The magnetic grids?

Denis: … Around the Earth

Joseph: Yes. The Earth is polluted. The lines around the Earth – the energy lines, the veins, the arteries of the Earth – they were once crystal clear, and the Earth was more crystalline in structure than it is today. The heavier rocks, the uglier rocks that you see, are a result of pollution being held by them.

Where does the pollution come from?

The pollution comes from the mind of men and women and, unfortunately, children because we feed them with our expectations of life from an early age. So, when you are encountering a grid, you are encountering a lack, a blockage, a pollution of a Light-stream. And, the Earth was far more 'generous' in its energies than it now is before the accumulative effect of the mental debris of the Field polluted many of its energy lines. So, a grid is not a natural occurrence; a grid is a pollution of a natural line of positive … of God-energy.

The way to clean grids, of course, goes back to what I was saying before; it goes back to the way that you think; the way that you influence the Field because when the Field is cleansed the grids will be cleansed. If you find a grid, if you find a line of seemingly negative energy, you need to put your hands onto it and pray and see Light going into it, and pray that it be restored to the condition before we – you and I – polluted it. And you can, for a time, clear those lines by doing this.

Grids, because they are pockets of intense Earth pollution, are terrible places for the unaware to live; are terrible places for the unaware to sit on an office chair; are terrible places for the unaware to build a hospital on because the energy goes into the grid. The grid pulls more of the Field's energy into itself, and the grid is powerful enough to pollute those who are on it or in its proximity.

There should be psychics, there should be mediums, testing for grids now, but only in certain parts of the world does that happen. It should happen as a matter of course. And, initially these places should be avoided. But then, later when they are recognised and have been avoided, they should be changes; they should be prayed over; they should be lifted from their polluted state. And one of the quickest ways that you can change a grid is by kneeling on it, putting your hands on the centre of the line and saying 'Forgive me, I am sorry. Forgive us, we are sorry. We love you as you love us". And you will clear the grid and will heal the line.

DO YOU THINK LEY LINES ARE CONSCIOUS?

Tony: Hello, this is Tony and Michael from The Sanctuary of Healing answering your questions. I have a question here from my friend Chris Tonge. I see him every Friday on our weekly meditations.

Michael: Hi Chris

Tony: He's a Dowser so the question is a little bit about Dowsing. Chris, our policy is not to mention other people's works or other people's books, so I've taken out a little bit of that, but I am getting to the core of your question, I think and I hope. Here we go:

Chris: I am really enjoying the recent introduction of the question and answer sessions, and find them a really helpful extension of the Joseph Communications. As you know, I am a Dowser with a special interest in what Dowsers usually call Earth Energies. I and other Dowsers are getting an increasing sense that some of the "Energy Lines" we dowse have a consciousness and a mission to help life on earth. The Energy Lines and Ley Lines are mentioned only briefly in the Joseph books, so I wonder whether with the help of Michael more guidance can be revealed. The question which is much on my mind at the moment is, "What is the true nature of the energy/consciousness flows and how can we best work with them?"

Michael: In order to answer that I have to tune in once again to a member of the soul group who is impressing me with the fact that the "Energy Lines", the Ley Lines, are more connected with Deva activity than they are with human activity. In the normal course of things on a planet the Devas are the Architects, if you like, of the landscape that we enact our lives against. Devas use the energy lines to connect with each other, to consult about the form that their creation should take and then to give and to draw energies dependant on what Deva activity in a certain area of the planet wishes to accomplish. It could be that they are putting their energies in to creating a new expression of life and they want to test out that expression of life. There are groups of Devas that are located along the Ley Lines at points and they use those Ley Lines to communicate with the planet and also to communicate with each other. There is a firing backwards and forwards of communication and instruction and questioning and information regarding the maintaining of the physical manifestation of creation on a planet and whether that should be enhanced, altered, whether certain aspects should go back to the nothingness in that the molecules that form that particular aspect of creation are pulled apart and not neutralised, but able to be used as something else. There is much communication that goes on in the normal course of things along Ley Lines. You will find that along Ley Lines there are placed by humanity certain objects, certain edifices, that were known to allow communication between Devas and between human souls. There were certain points in our history at which we would respect Deva activity, respect the workings of the Ley Lines, respect the energies of the planet and would communicate, when moved to do so, with the Devas at certain points in order to maintain a balance of creation and ask whether certain actions would harm creation, would enhance creation or were permitted by the Architects of the planet, the Devas.

Michael: I think Chris asked what can we do …. you might not like the answer.

Tony: How can we best work with them?

Michael: I'm being impressed that the way we can best work with them is to 1) respect them, which I know that you will do, but 2) for the most part, unless called to do so, keep away because when we work with the Ley Lines, to the best of our intentions, within those intentions lie the pollutions of The Fall. So we are infusing to a lesser or greater extent, dependant on how each of us is influenced by our earthly personality, we are infusing those Ley Lines with a degree of what is wrong here rather than what we could do to put it right. You and I, Tony, have come across Deva activity where we have been told in no uncertain terms, GO AWAY! Do not encroach on this area of land, do not interfere with what we are doing here, this is our area, please don't enter it. I think we have to acknowledge that there are greater forces that maintain reality around us than just humanity, and those forces, in order to restore the planet to what it should be, should be allowed to do their work as uninterrupted and as freely as they possibly can. I'm being told that if we want to help with regard to Ley Lines, we should keep people away from them. We should establish in our thinking, in the vibrations we send out, protection around the Ley Lines. If you were to see a Ley Line as a line of energy, if you are working as a group, surround that Ley Line with a pipe of positive energy that encapsulates it. By doing that you keep away the vibrations that keep that Ley Line functioning at a low level of activity and you allow the Devas that work with the Ley Lines, to restore the Ley Lines and to use them for their original purpose which was to communicate with the planet, with the animal lives that they have jurisdiction over and with each other to maintain the status quo spiritually speaking.

Michael: That, I am afraid, in the end of that communication, because I can't maintain it any longer. I hope we have got sufficient information, Chris.

Tony: Chris, again thank you for the question, that was a surprise. We didn't expect intervention from up above, if you like. That is the honest answer.

Michael: And the communicator, by the way, was Joseph.

THE JOSEPH COMMUNICATIONS BOOKS

There are eight books in the Joseph Communications series. The following ones may be of particular interest to Dowsers who are interested in earth energies:

The Spaces Between (2019) speaks about the Devas, that some Dowsers call 'nature beings' or 'elementals', as being the architects of the landscape against which we humans act out our plays or experiences here on earth. It also describes 'entities', 'feeders' and 'demons' that populate 'the Field', how they have been created, how they can negatively affect us and how we can protect ourselves from them.

The Fall (2012) talks in depth about how 'the Fall' took place through the manipulation of the way that physical matter is created using positive and negative energy in an experiment that went horribly wrong. For those with a rudimentary understanding of earth energies it gives some enlightening insights into how creation works that may explain many of the things encountered by Dowsers investigating 'Earth Energies'. It also shows us ways that we can help to mitigate the effects of the Fall to transform the Earth back to the perfection it once was.

As series of videos in which Michael G Reccia narrates the entirety of "The Fall" can be found at Readings from the Fall 1: Setting the Scene - Michael's Introduction

Your life after Death (2011) describes the spheres surrounding the Earth that souls initially go to after completing an earthly incarnation to be cleansed of the effects of the Fall. It describes how souls without physical bodies operate in the spirit world and how we who are incarnated on earth can also use our energy bodies in similar ways.
